

Ordinance of Devotion

To all people of Galgenbeck.
The darkest times are upon us.

"The city shall be made hollow.
Of those who rest in hollowness,
they shall not be seen."

To forestall the destruction of our glorious city, I hereby issue this terrible ordinance.

1. You shall not string up your fellow citizens in righteous fury.
2. You shall report all suspected heretics to the holy authorities. Consider heretics those who lie, steal, summon devils, or have an evil air about them.
3. You shall not offer food or shelter to known or suspected heretics, criminals, and rioters.
4. Until such time that the comet has passed us by, you shall return to your home and pray. You shall only leave to gather your necessities.
5. You shall offer your body and soul for deliverance of Galgenbeck.

Her Most Holy Josilfa Migol
